Who Were the Romans?

Rome is the capital city of modern-day Italy. It was the city at the centre of the Roman Empire. The Roman Empire is the name used for the land that was controlled by the Romans. This includes parts of Europe, North Africa and the Middle East.

The Romans were a group of people who were named after the important city of Rome. However, many soldiers fighting in the Roman army did not come from Rome itself. Instead, they came from one of the many countries which were part of the Roman Empire.

What Did the Romans Wear?

Roman clothing was different for men and women:

Men wore a knee-length tunic with a cloak over the top of it. Important Roman men would wear a long robe called a toga, made from white wool or linen.

Women wore a tunic which went down to their ankles. They would wear a dress called a stola over their tunics. Rich Roman women would wear long tunics made from silk. They also wore lots of jewellery.

The Romans also had different clothing for boys and girls:

Boys wore a knee-length tunic. They would also wear a special piece of jewellery around their neck called a bulla. This was thought to protect them from evil spirits. It would be given to them when they were a few days old and they would wear it until they were 16.

Girls wore an ankle-length tunic with a belt made from wool. They also wore a necklace called a lunula. It was thought to protect them against the evil eye and would be worn until the day before their marriage.

On their feet, most Romans would have worn sandals or boots made from leather.

ientaculum

prandium

For lunch, the Romans would eat a light meal of fish, cold meat, bread and vegetables.

cena
